Dear Sir:

Thank you for your order of one copy of Professor Smith's "Computing Jetons". It is being sent you under separate cover, and I am enclosing a list of our publications.

If you are actively interested in numismatics, perhaps you would care to consider becoming an Associate member of the Society, whereby you would receive all our publications free. The annual dues are but Five Dollars, and I am enclosing an application card which I should be glad to have you fill out and return to me should you decide to make application.

Very truly yours,

Secretary
